

FAYE LILY JULLY

A child's playroom scene. On the left, a stack of colorful alphabet blocks is arranged in a pyramid. The blocks have various letters and symbols, including 'A', 'B', 'Y', 'X', 'P', 'E', 'S', 'U', and 'Z'. In the center, a red toy car is parked on a colorful, patterned rug. The background wall is covered in colorful, abstract, hand-drawn patterns. The word 'PROJECT' is written in large, black, serif capital letters across the center of the image, overlaid on a white rectangular background.

Concept Statement

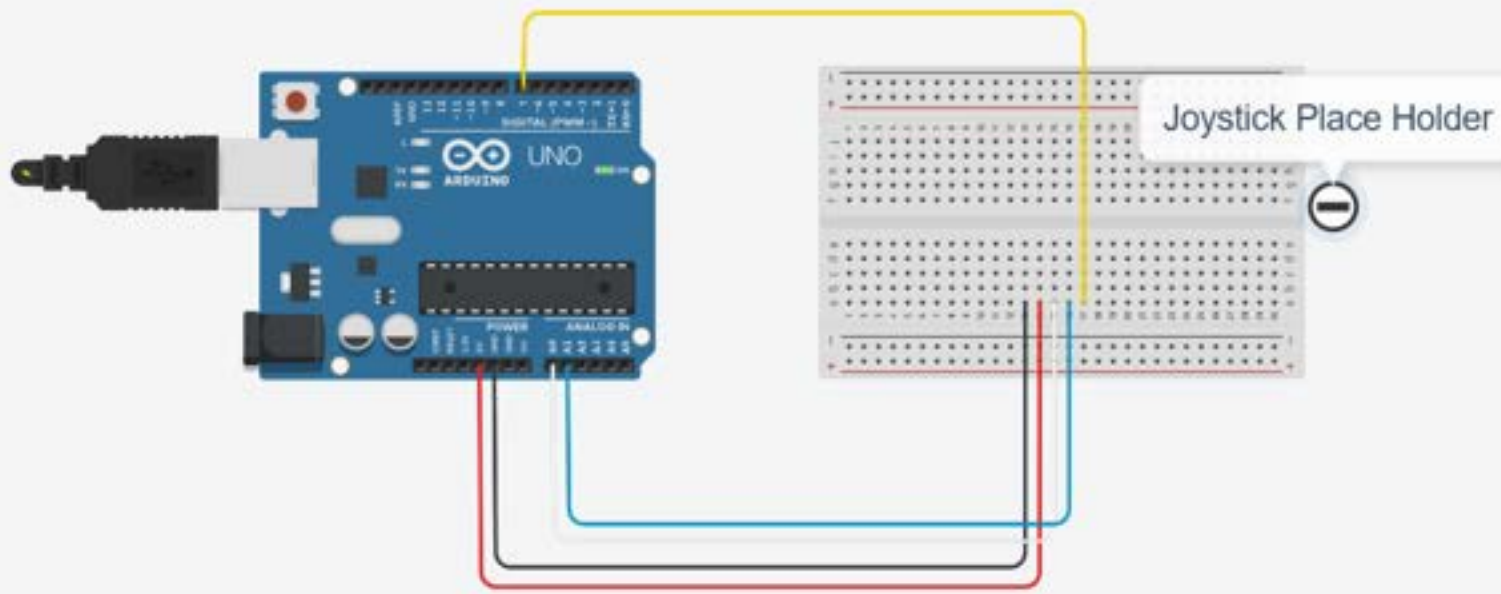

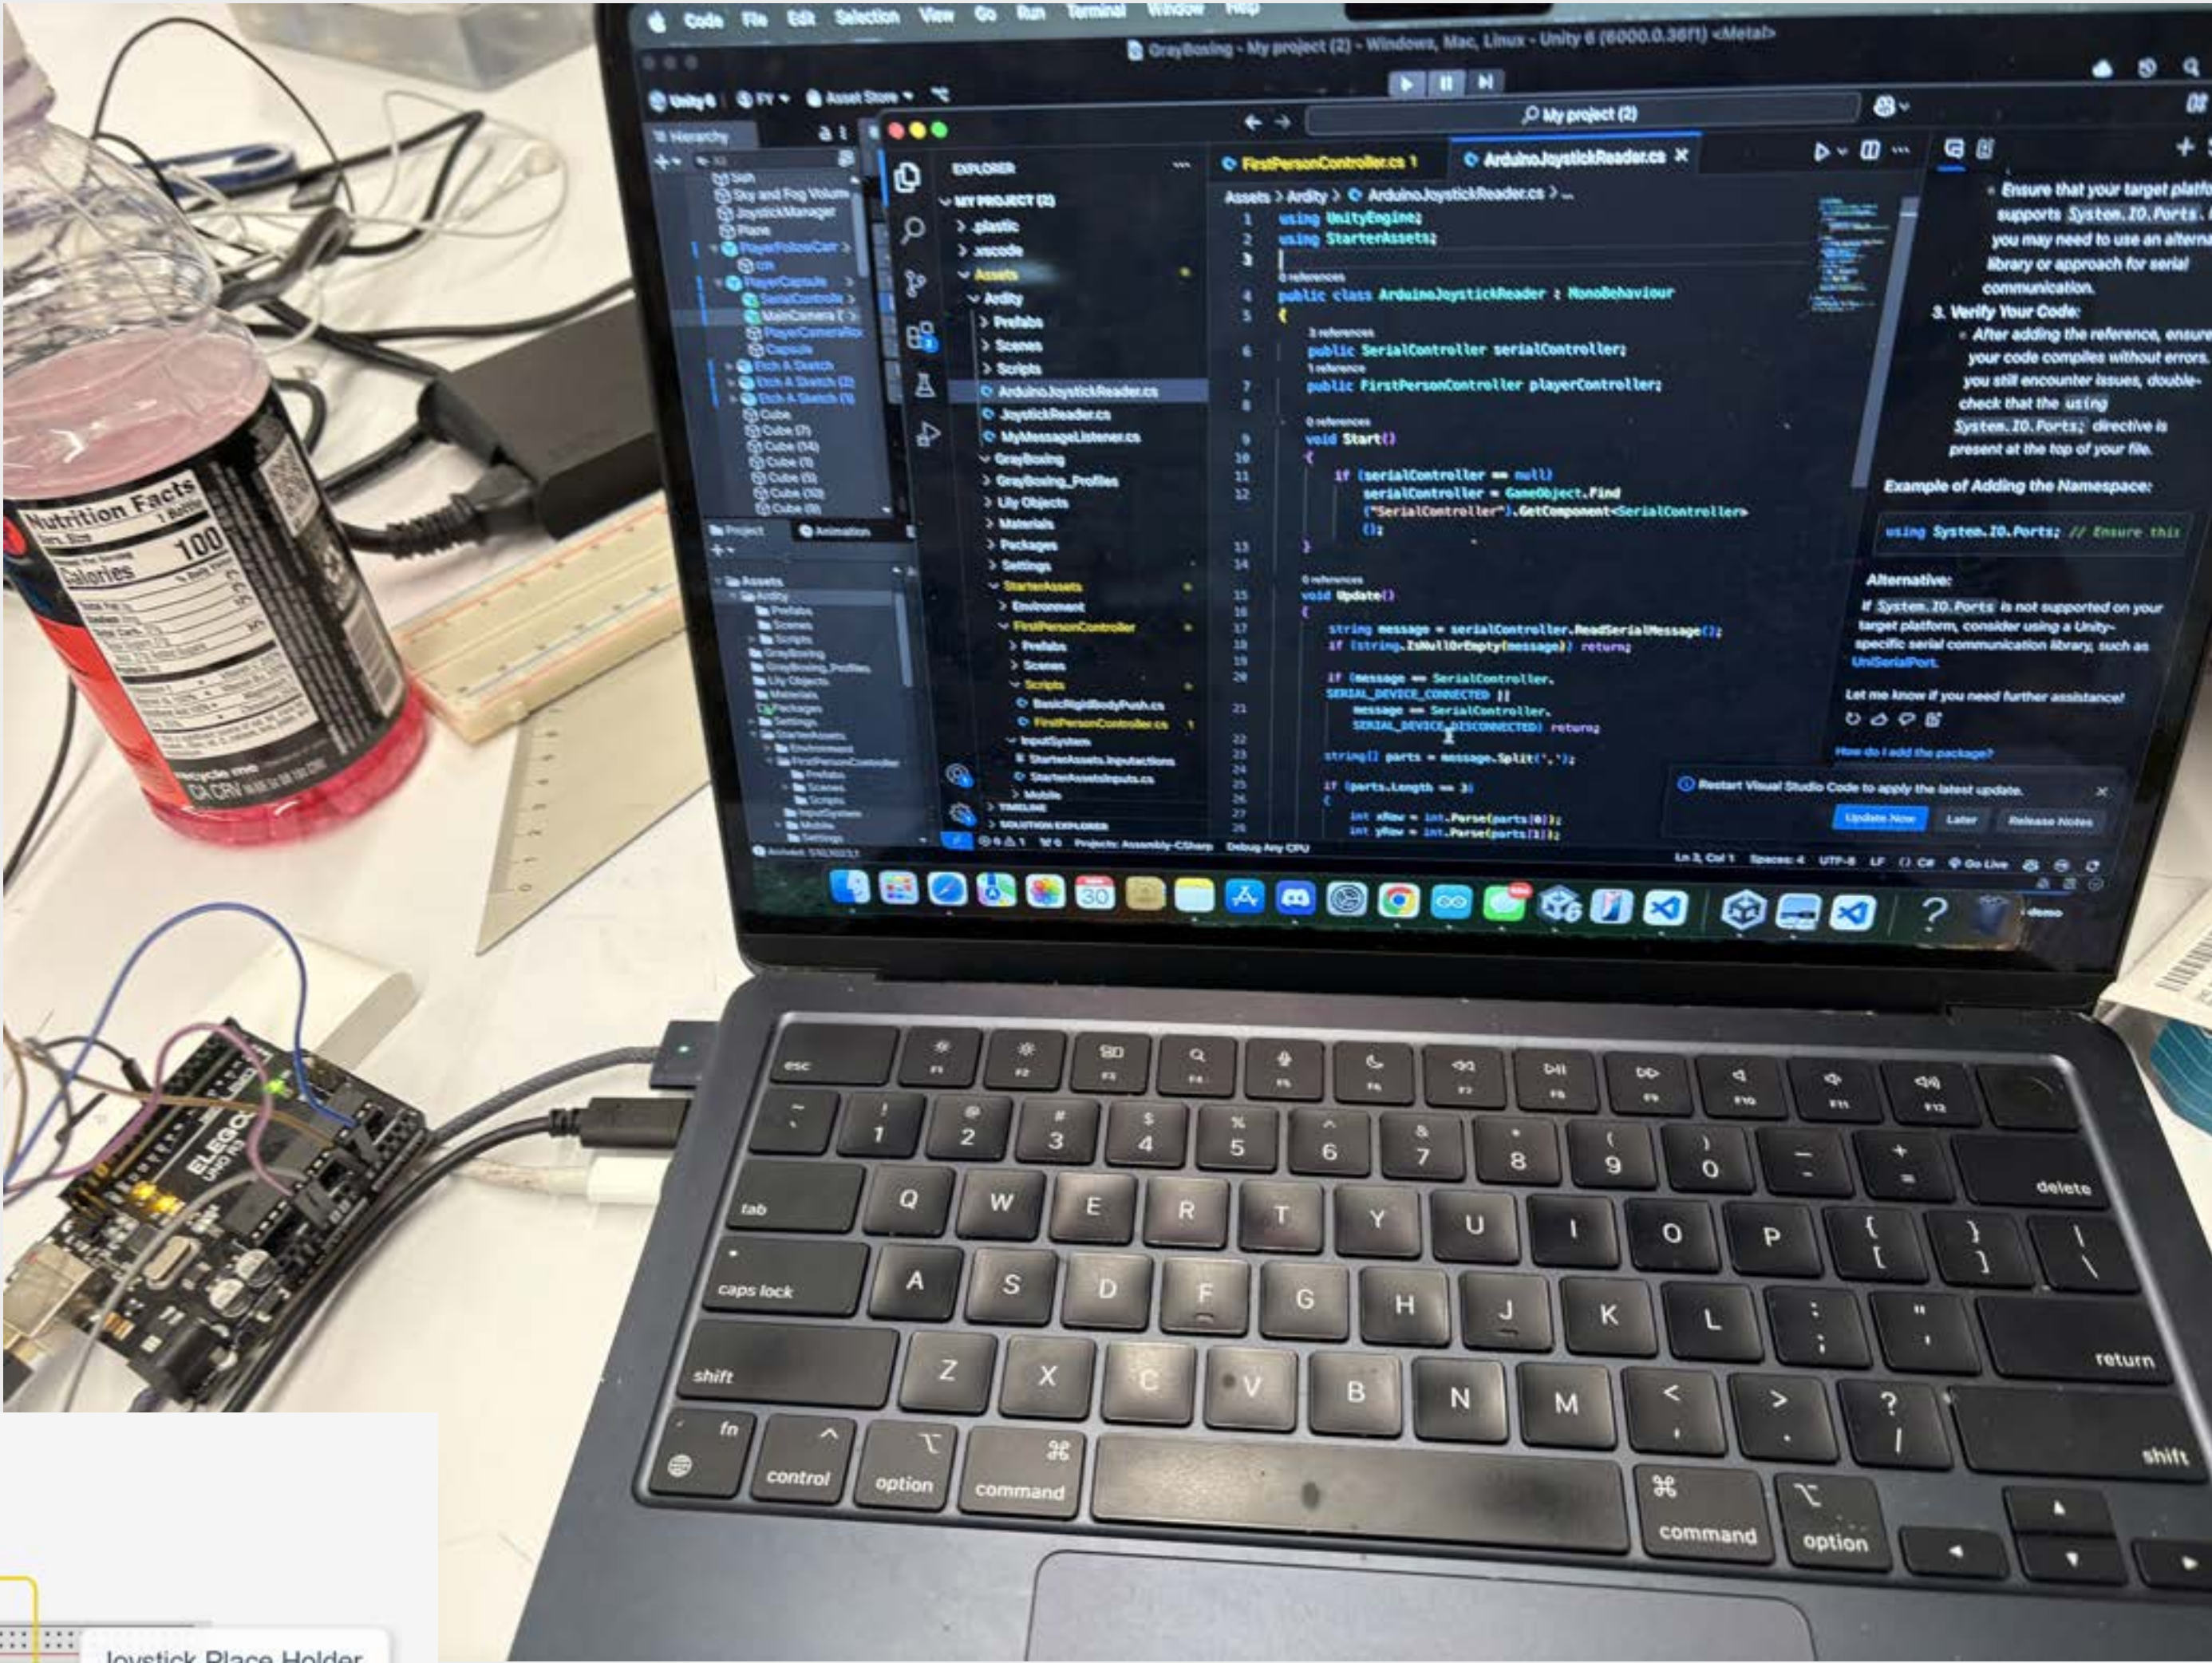

This project explores the fleeting yet lasting nature of childhood imagination. Through this installation, we recreate a playful world of wooden and plastic toys, and a large Etch A Sketch, projecting scenes of our childhood memories. This project reflects on how childhood memories feel vivid in the moment but gradually fade, leaving only traces behind.

Concept Statement

Background	Execution and Intended Impact	Focal Points
• Inspired by I Spy books and the etch a sketch, our project reflects on how childhood moments are vivid yet temporary. A playroom scene with rooms represent our childhood, while the etch a sketch represents memory —easily erased but never forgotten.	• We create three digital scenes of our childhood memories. in Unity, This installation invites viewers to reflect on their own childhood, recognizing the how they build us and how childhood moments fade but leave lasting impressions.	• Large etch a sketch model • Unity scene • Project on etch a sketch model and cubes
